

Dear Member,

Welcome to Angel Fire! Whether this is your first year of membership with Angel Fire Resort or you've been with us for many years, our goal is to make sure your experience as a shareholder in this scenic area is fun and rewarding.

We hope these guidelines will help you understand your membership privileges and responsibilities. There is a lot of information here, but we believe the table of contents should help you quickly find answers to questions that may come up from time to time.

Beyond having fun and relaxing, you are also expected to maintain your membership in good standing. This ensures that you are able to fully participate in the business and decisions governed by the Board of Directors of the Association of Angel Fire Property Owners (AAFPO), your representative body.

The AAFPO Board serves the interests of the membership at large through its input to the Resort management on issues that may affect member privileges or the quality and availability of certain amenities. The Board conducts business on your behalf consistent with the New Mexico Open Meetings Act. Meeting minutes are posted at the Shuter Library in Angel Fire and on the AAFPO website

Adult members in good standing are eligible and encouraged to serve on this all-volunteer Board. If you have questions or suggestions or just want to familiarize yourself with the issues we face as Resort members, we encourage you to attend a Board meeting. These are usually conducted the second Wednesday of each month. Please check the AAFPO website for dates and times.

But enough of the business side of things --- don't forget the FUN! Join us each month at the Member Social to enjoy FREE food and a no-host bar! This event is usually held the second Thursday at the Resort hotel. Again, please confirm dates and times on AAFPO's website. It's a great opportunity to visit with familiar faces and meet new friends. See you there!
